Notice for Mandatory Vacation of College Hostel by IInd Semester Students and Registration for Off-Campus Accommodation

All students residing in the college hostel are hereby informed that, due to the acute shortage of hostel accommodation and the requirement to accommodate I Year students to be admitted during academic session 2026-27, they are directed to vacate their hostel rooms just after completion of the IInd semester final examination 2026 which is expected to over by the end of 1st week of August 2026. The hostel rooms vacated by you shall be allotted to the newly admitted First Year students on priority.

All concerned II semester students are advised to complete the registration process for off-campus hostels/accommodation in Hardoi and make suitable arrangements for their accommodation well before the start of academic session 2026-27. It is also made clear that students who do not comply with this notice shall not be entitled to claim hostel accommodation thereafter. The College Administration shall not be responsible for any inconvenience, including the non-availability of accommodation in Hardoi or elsewhere, arising from their failure to vacate the hostel and register their off-campus residence within the prescribed time. You will all be shifted to the new hostel once its construction is completed.

Students are also instructed to hand over their rooms, hostel keys, and any college property in good condition to the Hostel Warden before leaving the hostel.

This notice shall be treated as final and binding. All students are expected to comply strictly with these instructions.
